CALL FOR MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS FROM THE MEXICAN GOVERNMENT FOR FOREIGNERS 2023

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs (SRE), through the Mexican Agency for International Cooperation for Development (AMEXCID), has developed a scholarship program to contribute to nations' sustainable development by fulfilling objectives and commitments adopted in international agendas. Additionally, the program aims to address global issues effectively and shared challenges by training excellent human capital and providing access to quality, inclusive, and equitable education.

This call is open to foreign individuals interested in pursuing studies in Mexico from over 180 countries per diplomatic relations, bilateral legal frameworks, multilateral mechanisms, and special agreements.

More than 80 Mexican Higher Education Institutions (HEIs) participate in this edition.

The development of this call offers the opportunity to carry out student exchanges that allow for academic and cultural integration between partner countries and Mexico.

Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Mexican Agency for International Cooperation for Development
AMEXCID

1) OBJECTIVE

To contribute to the development of high-level academic human capital by granting scholarships for full-time, in-person training programs in Mexico at the Master's and Doctoral levels, student mobility at the undergraduate and Master's levels, as well as postgraduate stays.

2) SCHOLARSHIP MODALITIES

Modality	Maximum duration of scholarship award
Undergraduate Mobility Program	24 months maximum
Master's Mobility Program	12 months maximum
Master's Program	24 months maximum
Doctoral Program	36 months maximum
Postgraduate Research Stays (Master's, Doctoral, and Postdoctoral)	12 months maximum

- Scholarships will not be granted for preparing thesis papers to obtain an academic degree.
- The scholarship is non-transferable and cannot be deferred to academic years following the period for which it was granted.
- Once the scholarship has been granted, the established periods published in the results announcement will not be modified or extended, nor will there be any changes to the academic program, Institution, and/or research.

3) SCHOLARSHIP BENEFITS

AMEXCID will grant the selected applicants:

- For Master's scholarships, mobility at the Bachelor's and Master's levels, and Master's level research, a monthly stipend of 4 (four) times the monthly value of the the Federal Economic Measurement Unit (UMA), currently equivalent to $12,614.80 (Twelve thousand six hundred fourteen pesos and 80/100 M.N.) per month. The UMA is subject to changes established by law. (Stipend is paid in the following month).
- For Doctoral scholarships and research stays at the doctoral and postdoctoral levels, a monthly stipend of 5 (five) times the monthly value of the UMA, currently equivalent to $15,768.50 (Fifteen thousand seven hundred sixty-eight pesos and 50/100 M.N.). The UMA is subject to changes established by law. (Stipend is paid in the following month).
- Enrollment and tuition, under the provisions of the program of each Mexican Educational Institution (Annex 1), subject to the final decision of each Institution, issued through their acceptance letter.

4. Medical insurance through the Mexican Social Security Institute (IMSS). The coverage will begin from the seventh month of the scholarship and will last for a period similar to the scholarship period granted (Annex 2).
5. Payment waiver for issuing the Mexican visa.
6. International air flight transportation upon satisfactory completion of the academic program. AMEXCID will determine the flight route. Please refer to the list of countries to which this benefit is given (Annex 3).
7. National Transportation. If the studies are carried out outside Mexico City, transportation from Mexico City to the host city of the receiving academic institution will be covered, as well as transportation back to Mexico City upon completion of the scholarship period with a satisfactory result of academic activities. Only applicable for national airfare or ground transportation (Annex 4).
8. In all applicable cases, AMEXCID will purchase the air flight ticket; any purchase made individually will not be subject to refunds.
9. Any changes the scholarship recipient wishes to make to the airline ticket purchased by AMEXCID after issuance will be covered by the recipient.
10. If the national transportation assigned is ground transportation, the scholarship recipient must pay for the bus fare and will be reimbursed for the amount spent.
11. The administration and management of the aforementioned benefits will be the responsibility of AMEXCID's Direction of Academic Exchange and selected candidates will be notified before the scholarship is formalized.

7. The Higher Education Institution in Mexico where the applicant wishes to pursue their studies must be requested to adjust the acceptance or presentation letter to Annex 7 of this Call.

10) SELECTION CRITERIA

The selection of applicants is made without any distinction based on ethnic origin, gender, age, disabilities, social status, health conditions, religion, opinions or sexual preferences, marital status, or any other situation and/or condition that undermines human dignity and aims to nullify or undermine people's rights and freedoms, and is subject to the following criteria:

1. Delivery of all the documents requested in this call.
2. Academic excellence background of the applicant.
3. Preference will be given to the applicant who has never received an AMEXCID scholarship.

11) RESULTS

1. In accordance with the schedule of this call, the decision on the award of the scholarship will be communicated by email only to the applicants selected by AMEXCID.
2. If AMEXCID does not receive a positive response from the selected applicant to accept the scholarship, AMEXCID may award the scholarship to another applicant who meets the requested requirements.
3. Acceptance at any of the Higher Education Institutions participating in this call does not guarantee the award of a scholarship by the Mexican Government.
4. The final decision on the award of scholarships is solely up to the Mexican Government.
5. All decisions made during the selection process are final and not subject to appeal, and will be subject to AMEXCID's budget availability.

12) CONSIDERATIONS

1. Any expense that is not specified in this Call for Applications will not be covered or reimbursed by AMEXCID.

2. The selected applicant will receive instructions via email to initiate the process of formalizing the scholarship grant. If AMEXCID does not receive a response to its communications within the established timeframe, it may result in the cancellation of the scholarship grant and the selection of another applicant.
3. The selected applicant, upon accepting the scholarship, commits to complying with the "Applicable Regulations for Foreign Scholarship Recipients" (NABE'S), as well as keeping up-to-date with them during their scholarship period.
4. In the case that the selected applicant carries out a stay equal to or greater than 180 days, regardless of their nationality, they must request the visa category indicated by the Academic Exchange Directorate at the Embassy or Representation of Mexico in their country of residence that is most convenient in order to obtain, once in Mexican territory, the corresponding immigration documentation.
5. The selected applicant must appear at the Direction of Academic Exchange (DIA) located at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs-Mexican Agency for International Cooperation for Development, at Plaza Juárez No. 20, Ground Floor, Col. Centro, C.P. 06010, Mexico City during business hours from 09:00 to 13:30 on business days, during the first 14 (fourteen) natural days of their scholarship.
6. The selected applicant will be considered a scholarship recipient only after delivering the required documentation to the offices of the Direction of Academic Exchange, and will be subject to the commitments of this Call for Applications.

The applicant will be responsible for covering their medical expenses in case they require it, so it is recommended to acquire an international medical insurance that covers the period where they will not have access to medical services.

It is recommended that you have resources that allow you to cover your expenses, for at least the first 60 days of your scholarship period.

13) TRANSITORY

1. Any matter not provided for in this call will be resolved by the officials of AMEXCID who have the authority to do so.
2. In the event of force majeure preventing the granting of the scholarships in this call, AMEXCID will notify the applicants about the situation as a final decision.
